

It is disturbing that Sinclair Broadcasting is forcing stations to air a political program attacking a presidential candidate. If they persist in this legally suspect action, I trust the FCC will require them to air another program giving equal support to the other candidate.